

WAITEMATĀ LOCAL BOARD GOOD CITIZENS' AWARDS 2019

Our first Individual Award goes to Liam Dargaville who has been nominated by Frances Arns Executive Director at RainbowYOUTH for their passionate devotion to a more equitable and inclusive society.

Liam is of the Te Rarawa iwi and part of the K Road community.

For almost 10 years, Liam has contributed significantly to the local music community, predominantly in the K Road district, with inclusion and accessibility at the heart of their work

Liam regularly organises gigs where youth, women, gender non-conforming people and people of colour are prioritised, providing a platform for musicians who can often be overlooked.

Liam is also a committed bFM volunteer, hosting their own weekly show further supporting the local music scene.

They also recently raised $2,000 for the families of the victims of the Christchurch terror attacks.

Through these many contributions, Liam is undoubtedly dedicated to the local community in Waitemata, helping to make our area a great place to live

Congratulations Liam!
