

Pacific Arts Programme 2018

Call for ideas submission form

Complete this form and submit your idea for consideration to be part of a new Pacific arts programme in 2018.

What is your name?

What are your contact details?

Please include two ways that we can reach you e.g. mobile, email, Facebook, etc

Where are you from?

Please say a little about where you are based in Auckland and your Pacific heritage.

What is your idea?

Why is it important to you? How will it engage with audiences and communities with Pacific art forms? Your project needs to be an original new work and could be in any format. It could be an installation, a performance, a happening.

Where could it take place?

We are looking for ideas that will activate public space in different parts of the Auckland region. Your project could pop up in a park, an alleyway, a mall, on public transport, or in an open urban space.

How will people experience the work?

How will it engage with audiences and communities, including youth? Please describe what you think the live and digital audience will experience.

Who's in your team?

Think about how you'll make your project happen. Who will be helping you with your project, and what do you need to take it from concept to delivery?
What mentoring support do you require?

Please complete this form and email it to Reina Sutton, Arts & Culture Programmer reina.sutton@aucklandcouncil.govt.nz by Monday 26 February 2018.

If you need assistance with submitting your idea, or if you have any questions, please call Reina on 021 528 340.
