1. Film-friendly Auckland

The economic importance of the film industry in Auckland has been growing; bringing jobs and opportunity to those directly involved in the industry and economic benefits to the wider Auckland Council. Auckland Council supports filming in public places to help attract and retain filming in Auckland.

Do you support Auckland Council's film-friendly approach?

Yes No Partially

Please tell us a bit more about why:

2. How much do you know about the Auckland Film Protocol?

I have never heard of it I have heard of it, but don't know very much about it
 I have heard of it and am familiar with some parts of it I have heard of it and am familiar with most or all of it

3. Being film friendly while managing the impact that filming has on residents and businesses

Filming in public places, like parks, civic spaces, streets, and other public places has economic benefits for Auckland; providing jobs, showcasing our region to the world, encouraging visitors and attracting skills and talent to Auckland. But we need to balance the benefits of filming with the impact that filming can have on our communities and businesses.

Do you think the Auckland Film Protocol does enough to manage the impact of filming on residents and businesses?

4. Has filming in a public place in Auckland had an impact on you or your business?

Yes – on me No
 Yes – on my business

[If yes] What impact did filming have on you or your business?

It had a slightly negative impact It had a slightly positive impact
 It had a very negative impact It had a very positive impact

Please tell us about how filming in a public place impacted on you or your business:

5. Being film-friendly while managing the impact of filming on our public open space and environment

Auckland has a wide range of parks, reserves and public open space; ranging from local neighbourhood parks, through to iconic premier parks and conservation areas and many of these are in demand as filming locations, along with our unique beaches and coastal marine areas. The Auckland Film Protocol sets out how we manage the impact that filming could have on our public open spaces and natural environment.

Do you think the Auckland Film Protocol does enough to manage the impact of filming on our public open space and environment?

Yes No Partially

Please comment:

6. Being film-friendly while managing the impact of filming on our heritage

Some of our public open spaces contain places of cultural significance, archaeological sites or historic buildings; filming in these areas is likely to have specific restrictions to ensure our heritage is protected.

Do you think the Auckland Film Protocol does enough to manage the impact of filming on our historic and cultural heritage?

Yes No Partially

Please comment:
