The screenshot displays the Auckland Council Unitary Plan Viewer in a Windows Internet Explorer browser. The browser's address bar shows the URL: <http://acmaps.aucklandcouncil.govt.nz/unitaryplan/FlexViewer/index.html>. The page title is "Proposed Auckland Unitary Plan (notified 30 September 2013)".

The main map area shows a property boundary highlighted in cyan. The property is situated within a larger area shaded with diagonal orange lines. A hand cursor is positioned over the cyan boundary. In the bottom-left corner of the map, the Auckland Council logo is visible, along with a scale bar indicating 50 meters and 200 feet.

On the right side of the map, there are two panels:

- Property Summary: This panel provides details for the selected property. It includes a "Legal Description" field with the value "Lot 1 DP 12837 (0.0192H)", a "Zone" field with the value "Mixed Rural", and a "Precinct" field. A note at the bottom of the panel states: "For other mapped information please also check the [map] category within this viewer." Below the note is a button labeled "enquire about your property".
- Layers: This panel allows users to manage the visibility of different map layers. It features a "Current Layer Transparency: Zones" slider set to 100% (Opaque). Below this, the "Layer Visibility" section shows a list of layers: "Overlays" (checked), "Precincts", "Infrastructure", and "Natural Heritage".

The Windows taskbar at the bottom of the screen shows the "Done" status and several application icons, including Internet Explorer, File Explorer, and Microsoft Office applications.
