

New Zealand Racing Board (TAB) Venue Policy

Auckland Council, July 2013

Background

The Racing Act 2003 requires territorial authorities to adopt a New Zealand Racing Board (TAB) venue policy, and to review the policy every three years. Adoption or amendment of these policies must use the special consultative procedure under section 83 of the Local Government Act 2002.

A New Zealand Racing Board venue policy must specify whether new board venues may be established and where they may be located.

In the Racing Act, a board venue means “premises that are owned or leased by the Board and where the main business carried on at the premises is providing racing betting or sports betting services under this Act.”

A territorial authority racing board venue policy therefore does not apply to any other place where the New Zealand Racing Board operates a TAB outlet or installs a self-service betting machine.

Following the amalgamation of the seven former territorial authorities on 1 November 2010, Auckland Council inherited seven policies on gambling venues. Section 65 of the Local Government (Auckland Transitional Provisions) Act 2010 requires that Auckland Council must, for policies made by an existing local authority which are expressly required by an enactment, review each such policy and confirm, amend, or revoke it before the close of 31 October 2015.

In November 2012, the Committee adopted a proposed Racing Board (TAB) Venue Policy for public consultation [minute: RDO/2012/222].

The special consultative procedure for the racing board (TAB) venue policy was combined with another consultative procedure, for a class 4 gambling (pokie) venue policy, as permitted by section 83A of the Local Government Act.

A hearings panel was appointed to hear submissions in response to the statements of proposal for a Racing Board (TAB) Venue policy and a Class 4 Gambling (Pokie) Venue policy, and make recommendations to the Committee on both policies [minute: HC/2013/24].

The hearings panel reported back to the Committee on 24 July 2013. The new New Zealand Racing Board (TAB) Venue policy was adopted, with immediate effect, at 12:25 pm [minute: RDO/2013/118].
