A guide to disputing Recovery Office decisions

This guide is to help property owners who disagree with certain decisions about their property category, property valuation or their special circumstances.

You can only dispute some specific decisions, and you need to follow the process below to have the decision(s) reviewed.

Property owners can dispute:

- the property category assigned to the property
- the market valuation (as at 26 January 2023) we provided for the buy-out offer
- the result of an application to consider special circumstances
- the decision about an uninsured homeowner’s individual circumstances.

How to raise a dispute

If you want to dispute your property category, you must send us the dispute application form within three months from receiving the property category. This allows you to thoroughly consider the category we have given your property, and to seek independent advice about it.

To raise a dispute, please complete the application form available online here (www.aucklandcouncil.govt.nz/recoveryreview) and email it to recoveryreview@aucklandcouncil.govt.nz

There is no set time for completing a dispute because every dispute is different. We will respond to your application as soon as possible.

If you want to dispute your property’s valuation, discuss this with your assigned property advisor. You need to raise a dispute with them within one month of receiving the market valuation.

How we manage disputes

Property category: When you raise a category dispute, the council will complete an internal technical review about the decision and provide a response as soon as possible. If you are still unhappy with the outcome, you can ask for a further external review by an independent expert. The independent expert's decision is final.

Property valuation: If you are unhappy with the market valuation (as at 26 January 2023) you can provide another valuation from a registered valuer for Auckland Council to consider.

If the council declines to change the valuation, you have one month to apply to have the valuation dispute determined by an independent valuer. You must choose a valuer from council's panel of experts, and this will depend on their availability. The independent valuer's decision is final.

Dispute Resolution Framework and application forms

You can find the full Dispute Resolution Framework and application forms on the Auckland Council website (aucklandcouncil.govt.nz/review).

The framework is also included in the Category 3 Homeowner Handbook.
