

NOW'S THE TIME FOR A CLEAN OUT

Book your annual on-property inorganic collection today and help reduce waste to landfill.

Have a clean out and book your inorganic collection today.

Encourage your friends, family, and neighbours to do the same.

The inorganic collection is designed to reduce the amount of material sent to landfill. When we collect your items from inside your property boundary. We save anything we can repair, repurpose or reuse. With your help, we can all participate to make Auckland zero waste to landfill by 2040.

You can book an inorganic collection in the way that works best for you:

- Online at aucklandcouncil.govt.nz/inorganic
- Or visit one of our service centres.

We will notify you your exact collection day one week before your collection week, so if you decide you no longer need a collection, you have time to cancel it.

Once you have all your inorganic items together, please check:

- Items are easy to access within the boundary of your property at the front and as close as possible to the driveway/entrance.
- There is no more than one cubic metre of items. If you place more than this out for collection it will be left behind.

Don't delay book your inorganic collection today.

Together we can protect our land and waste nothing.
