

Auckland Unitary Plan

Notice of Requirement for designation for a new rapid transit station, including transport interchange facilities, park and ride and accessway.

Notice of Requirement (NOR HS Huapai Rapid Transit Station)

Auckland Council has received a notice of a requirement for a designation from Waka Kotahi NZTA as the Requiring Authority, for public work.

The requirement is for the construction, operation and maintenance of a rapid transport station and associated activities within Huapai to enable the Requiring Authority to:

- Provide new and upgraded transport corridors to support and enable Auckland Council's growth aspirations for Auckland.
- Improve access to economic and social opportunities and improve resilience of the strategic transport network.
- Integrate future transport outcomes with Auckland Council's aspirations for land use and urban form.
- Help to address existing and increasing safety risks on transport corridors as growth areas urbanise.
- Support mode shift towards more sustainable travel choices such as public transport and walking and cycling.

The site to which the requirement applies is located to the south of Meryl Avenue.
