Community	It is recommended that this application is partially supported. Start date does not meet the criteria. Aligns with the overall priorities of the Puketapapa local board, providing a service to local residents that includes diverse needs and creates connections with families in the community. Request is for the purchase of toys, according to the member's requirement/wish list and storage. Higher priorities: encourages people to engage with their wider community; supports and promotes volunteerism; This toy library is unique as it caters to members with special needs for whom there is a dedicated supply of toys, in addition to the wider range of toys that are otherwise available to the wider public. A toy library provides users with access to a wide range of quality, educational, and age-appropriate toys and play equipment, and a very economical way - a year's membership is considerably cheaper than a family purchasing the same range and quality that is available through the library. Families using the library are less likely to be contributing to the waste stream and land-fill, by buying cheaply produced items, with short-term durability. As such, the library does meet a need in the PKT local board area. An estimated reach of 170 people, noting 100% participant benefit. Requesting 100% of the cost (total cost as per attached quotes is $1,899.80, however, the applicant is requesting $2,000). Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

The sessions at Mt Roskill are free, and open to people of all backgrounds. Taking place in a local community centre - the library - barriers to accessibility are reduced for the community. No bookings required, members of the community can simply walk up and play.

The expected community outcomes include:

- Foster meaningful connections and relationships within the community.
- Encourage cross-cultural understanding through conversation.
- Support mental wellbeing by providing a digital-free opportunity to pause and reflect.

Players will walk away with a new gained understanding of their identity, having reflected on who they are, where they came from and their relationship with their whakapapa. Players will also walk away with increased empathy and understanding of how other individuals and cultural groups view heritage.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Communities with a sense of belonging and identity, and pride in our diversity

Continuum facilitates conversation on the topic of culture and heritage. The kaupapa of the game is to create connection and conversation between its players. With Puketāpapa boasting one of Auckland’s most diverse neighbourhoods, it makes sense to bring an art activation on the topic of heritage and connection to this community.

The intended benefits of the game include:

- Foster meaningful connections and relationships within the community through conversation and play
- Encourage cross-cultural understanding through conversation.
- Support mental wellbeing by providing a digital-free opportunity to pause and reflect.
- Encourage dialogue on important topics including heritage and culture.

Players will walk away with increased empathy, understanding, and how other individuals and groups view the world and their relationship with their heritage.

Accessible to people with disabilities Yes - - The game will be located in a part of the library that has easy wheelchair accessibility. The game does not require any physical activity other than moving the parts on the game board - this can be done with assistance from Talia if required.

- For low vision/blind - the game is highly tactile, which can make it easier for low-vision and blind players to experience the game. Talia can assist players by reading out loud the questions and assisting players with the game pieces.
- For those from the deaf community - all the questions and instructions are displayed on the board game for the players to read.
- Talia has previously worked with IHC on designing a game for teenagers with Autism and Down Syndrome, so is equipped to facilitate conversation with them through Continuum.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

The Youth Development Strategy Aotearoa says 'Youth Development is triggered when young people fully participate and that young people need to be given opportunities to have greater control over what happens to them, through seeking their advice, participation and engagement'.

Spoken Word Poetry is an art form that's increasingly recognised as an effective vehicle for young people to understand, who they are in the context of where they are, what healthy relationships look like and how they can be enhanced through using tools such as active listening, communication, authentic expression, empathy and understanding.

Arts continue to emerge as a medium for young people to engage and connect with their peers, feelings and emotions.

In recent survey by CNZ it was found that kiwis believe arts have wide-ranging benefits. The majority feel participating in art activities makes them more confident (67%), helps them to feel good about life in general (62%), and helps them to make friends (58%).

The workshops often act as a catalyst for young people to start their journey within a thriving youth poetry environment where diversity is embraced, critical thinking is encouraged and young people are actively involved in their own development.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Strong local youth voice and leadership

By holding the workshops we are enabled to support and connect communities through spoken word poetry workshops that encourage an inclusive environment where diversity is fostered and can bloom, where young people can create and connect and are encouraged to speak their truth while being cheered on by their peers. There is nothing more powerful than knowing you are not alone and that you are celebrated for who you are. These are the environments these workshops curate for our young people.

Demographics

Māori outcomes:

All of our staff and volunteers are trained in the Treaty of Waitangi and Maori models of Health such as Te Whare Tapa Wha, Tuakana/Teina and the Takarangi Cultural Competency Framework.

We have high representation of Maori, Pasifika and People of Colour within our core staff, volunteers, community supporters and communities that we serve, who guide our mahi.

We use Karakia, Waiata, Whakatauki, Poroporoaki and Powhiri within our programmes where appropriate. We hold core values such as Aroha, manaakitanga and kotahitanga throughout all of our programmes.

Fundamentally we acknowledge that peoples, such as Maori are taonga who need safe, supportive and positive spaces where they are celebrated, uplifted and; can build, reflect on, and grow their own aspirations.

Accessible to people with disabilities

Yes - Our work is mainly held at secondary schools and community centres which are all well equipped to provide access for those with physical disabilities. Upon entry into our programmes, we take into account the unique needs of each individual so that we can ensure they are comfortable and can fully participate.

Healthy environment approach:

Promote smoke-free messages

We have a smoke free policy's in place at our workspace, and our work mostly takes place in smoke free environments such as community centres and schools. All of our youth development workers are trained to be able to offer support in smoking cessation.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

Our workshops attract and support an incredibly diverse range of participants in terms of gender, ethnicity, culture, faith, world view, sexuality and, socio-economic backgrounds. We know from experience that it is through shared stories our programmes can break down stereotypes and give young people a craft to express their voice. We support an inclusive environment where diversity is fostered and can bloom.

Project: Hillsborough Ceilidh (community dance) Covid Recovery Plan Phase 2

Location:	St Davids in the Fields, 202 Hillsborough Rd
Summary:	Our group has run a monthly Scottish community ceilidh dance at St Davids since 2008, but Covid has hit us hard. Our numbers are down, and our door sales income is not enough to cover the hall rental. With support from the Local Board we have kept going through 2022 and 2023 but our funding is now spent and we have not yet been able to rebuild our numbers. We need another year of support to enable us to pay a fair hall rental and to find an effective way to advertise our dance more widely to rebuild our numbers. That way, a lively Scottish dance will be happening in Hillsborough each month and a proud local tradition will continue.
Expertise:	We have been running 10 of these events each year since 2008, excluding those months when we were prevented by Covid or in one case by a natural disaster. We are affiliated with the Auckland Scottish Fiddle Club (they are our live band each month) and with the ScotStringNZ annual Scottish Fiddle School https://scotstring.nz/
Dates:	27/10/2023 - 29/09/2023
People reached:	24 - 100 attendees * 10 events = 500
% of participants from Local Board	50%
Promotion:	We will continue to include the local board on our advertising and communications, and announce their support at each ceilidh.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

Our dances are a focal event for Auckland's Scottish community, and are attended by all ages. We provide a healthy, smokefree, alcohol free, active night out and we pass on the culture and traditions of Scotland.

We provide a start to young musicians and dancers who go on to excel in the Scottish tradition.

We are at the heart of a music and dance community that brings live fiddle music and Scottish dancing to events across Auckland.

We are a longstanding community event that operated without financial support between 2008 and 2020, but Covid has hit us hard. With the support of the Local Board, we were able to continue to operate until now, but we have not yet been able to rebuild our numbers and we need further support to return to the self-funding, sustainable event that we were before 2020.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Communities with a sense of belonging and identity, and pride in our diversity

The Scottish community has been part of Auckland's diversity since the 1840s. We have kept up our traditions including our pipe bands, Highland Games and fiddle music. The ceilidh is the heart of Scottish culture, where music dance and community come together and where skills are passed down from one generation to the next.

The Scottish Celtic Music Club has put on a monthly dance at St Davids since 2008 and has earned a central role in the life of Auckland's Scottish community. Many of Auckland's finest young musicians and dancers in the Scottish tradition got their start playing items at the St Davids ceilidh and have gone on to perform at major events including the Anzac Dawn Parade and the North Shore Tartan Day. Our ceilidhs have also been the starting point for musicians who go on to support Scottish Country Dance events throughout NZ.

After such a long time, it would be very sad to lose this great community tradition. However, Covid has hit us hard, and has also hit St Davids who have increased our hall rental to $128, which is more than fair but which we have not been able to cover from door charges as we used to do before Covid.

With the local board's help, we have continued to have a ceilidh each month, unless prevented by Covid restrictions, active community transmission (our community has many vulnerable members) or in once case (24 February 2023) by extreme weather.

It has been very difficult to rebuild the Ceilidh after such a long period of uncertainty. Our efforts to attract new young members through online advertising have been less successful than we hoped, but we still have our regulars and our team of volunteers. We are still playing live music and calling fun, easy dances and we are confident that with the Board's support we can continue this proud Auckland tradition.

Accessible to people with disabilities Yes - Scottish dancing is really very easy and accessible, and we are friendly and inclusive. We are very happy to help anyone who needs assistance and have had dancers in wheelchairs as well as many low vision dancers. It all just adds to the fun.

Healthy environment approach:

Promote smoke-free messages, Include waste minimisation (zero waste) messages, Healthy options for food and drink, including water as the first choice, Encouraging active lifestyles including movement or fitness programmes

Our ceilidh is alcohol free and smokefree. It's an active, fun choice for a night out alone or with the whole family.

Our event uses the church collection of china plates and cups and we do not waste food or create rubbish.

Being Scottish, our first choice for drink is tea. But we provide water as an option as well as a light supper which includes savory and vegetarian options.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

Our ceilidh dances are active and fun for all ages. Many of our older dancers are in their eighties and still dancing; some of our youngest dancers are still learning to walk. We also have regular dancers who are blind / low vision.

Financial information

Amount requested: $950.00

Requesting grant for: Hall hire. This is $128 per event and is not covered by the door takings . It costs $90 to put on the ceilidh, being sound system cost ($40) and supper ($50), and most of our attendees are unwaged.

If part funded, how would you make up the difference:

We would continue to host a ceilidh, but less regularly - perhaps quarterly? We would fund the hall hire ourselves. However I fear that if the event was less regular it would be a sad loss of a tradition and contribute to our spiral of declining participation.

Cost of participation: We charge an entry fee for dancers of $5 unwaged, $10 waged, $15 family, children free

The Period Place

Legal status:	Charitable Trust	Activity focus:	Community
----------------------	------------------	------------------------	-----------

Project: Reusable Period Products for Puketāpapa

Location:	354 Onehunga Mall, Onehunga
Summary:	The Period Place is requesting funding to purchase approximately 100 pairs of reusable period underwear to distribute to people experiencing period inequity in Puketāpapa through our local community group partner. We recognise the immense benefit of reusable menstrual products in minimising the waste associated with disposable products that can only be sent to landfill, however, the initial cost and unfamiliarity of these products can be off-putting for customers. By donating products to people who may face financial or other barriers to accessing them, we aim to encourage behaviour change to more environmentally friendly lifestyles.
Expertise:	The Period Place has been managing its Impact Partner Programme since 2020. In that time, we have helped thousands of people across Aotearoa access period products and education, empowering them to manage their periods with dignity. In our last financial year, ending June 2022, we donated enough disposable period products to enable 4,315 people manage their periods for 12 months, and enough reusable period products for a further 428 people to manage their periods for 2-10 years. We work with more than 30 Impact Partners around the country, including Communities Feeding Communities in Puketāpapa, which connects us to a number of other local groups working to help people in the area.
People reached:	100
% of participants from Local Board	100%
Promotion:	The Period Place is active on social media, including Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. We use these platforms to communicate with our followers and to promote our services to people experiencing period poverty and to relevant community groups who may wish to become Impact Partners. If we are successful in this application, the local board will be acknowledged on our website.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

The expected benefits of the project are:

People have increased access to reusable period products

People are empowered to change their behaviour from single-use disposable period products to reusable period products

Waste is diverted from landfill as more people are supported to change from disposable period products to reusable products.

People are supported to participate more in education, employment, recreation, sports and other cultural and social opportunities during their menstrual cycle, as they have sufficient and appropriate products to manage their periods.

People's physical, mental and spiritual health and wellbeing improve as they are able to be active, involved and engaged in more opportunities as the stress and anxiety around period poverty is lightened.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Our people live more environmentally friendly lifestyles

This application is for the purchase of reusable period products to be distributed to people experiencing period inequity in Puketāpapa. This project meets the local board priority of “People live more environmentally friendly lifestyles” because it removes the financial barrier to people using reusable products and encourages the shift away from single use disposable period products to more sustainable, environmentally friendly alternatives.

There has been a significant increase in reusable options for managing periods. These products often have high upfront costs. For example, a single pair of reusable period underwear costs from $17-$50+ and four or five pairs are usually required to fully replace disposable products. Menstrual cups range from $20-$65+. Reusable products are designed to last 2-10 years so the cost per use can end up being lower than disposable products over their lifetime. However, the upfront costs and the unfamiliarity of products can be prohibitive.

This project aims to provide a quality brand of period underwear to be distributed through our Impact Partner to people experiencing period inequity to introduce them to reusable products and to encourage a change to reusable, more environmentally friendly alternatives to disposable pads and tampons.

Collaborating organisation/individual	Role
Communities Feeding Communities	Impact Partner - will distribute period products to individuals in need and/or other organisations working in the area
May Road School, Roskill South Kindergarten, Baptist Kindergarten, Oasis Hub, Family Works Leslie Centre, Social Workers in Schools, ADHB, Oranga Tamariki, Police, Womens Refuge, Lifeline, SHINE, Global Hope – Welsey Centre	Organisations in the area that make referrals to Communities Feeding Communities for period products for individuals and families in need

Māori outcomes:

- Data from the Youth19 Survey shows Māori are more likely to experience period poverty; 19% of Māori students reported going without period products because of cost, and 16% had missed school because of lack of access to products. We work with a number of Kaupapa Māori organisations, including Mānukau Urban Māori Authority, Mahitahi Trust and Papakura Marae to reach Māori in culturally appropriate ways and improve access to period products and education. We uphold tino rangatiratanga by being flexible in our approach and allowing those with mana in their respective communities to lead the distribution of period products and education. Increased access to products, in turn, removes barriers to participation in social, economic, and cultural opportunities and improves well-being.

Accessible to people with disabilities

Yes - People with disabilities are more likely to experience poverty and material hardship (Stats NZ, 'Measuring inequality for disabled New Zealanders: 2018' 28 October 2020, <https://www.stats.govt.nz/reports/measuring-inequality-for-disabled-new-zealanders-2018>). As a result, they are more likely to face financial barriers to accessing period products and education. Our services are specifically targeted to anyone experiencing these barriers.

Healthy environment approach:

Include waste minimisation (zero waste) messages, Encouraging active lifestyles including movement or fitness programmes

This application is for reusable period underwear. Disposable period products and nappies make up around 12% of domestic waste going to landfill and take an estimated 450 years to breakdown (Alex Casey 'What happens to all the tampons and pads when they leave us?' The Spinoff. 17 May 2018 <https://thespinoff.co.nz/society/17-05-2018/what-happens-to-all-the-tampons-and-pads-when-they-leave-us>).

Educating people about reusable period products and removing the financial barrier to accessing these products promotes waste minimisation. Reusable period products are designed to last 2-10 years each and can divert 528 - 2640 disposable products from going to landfill over the lifetime of the product (Laken Brooks 'Disabled People Menstruate, Too. Which Reusable Products Might Work For You?' Forbes. 25 March 2021 <https://www.forbes.com/sites/lakenbrooks/2021/03/25/disabled-people-menstruate-too-which-reusable-products-might-work-for-you/?sh=65251fff1241>).

Providing access to period products enables women, girls and other genders who menstruate to participate more in opportunities, including sports and fitness. In a 2022 Auckland Rugby League survey, 46% of respondents reported having to miss sports games or practice because they could not access period products.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

The Period Place's work is specifically targeted at supporting women, girls and other genders who menstruate. Our Impact Partner Programme works with locally based community groups to improve access to period products and education in diverse and culturally appropriate ways so women, girls, and other people who menstruate are supported to manage their periods with confidence and dignity, to the benefit of their mental, physical and spiritual well being. Our work focuses mainly on adult menstruators, those who do not receive products through the government's 'Free Period Products in Schools' initiative.

We estimate 10% of recipients in our Impact Partner Programme are aged 9 - 14 years, 45% are aged 15 - 24 years, and 45% are aged 25 - 65 years. While our work is not targeted to specific ethnicities, research has shown Māori and Pacific peoples are disproportionately impacted by period poverty therefore our Impact Partners include a number of organisations supporting Māori and Pacific communities.

Financial information

Amount requested: $2000.00

Requesting grant for: We are respectfully requesting $2,000 to purchase approximately 100 pairs of Reemi reusable period underwear (designed to last at least 3 years) to be distributed through our Impact Partner in Puketāpapa to 100 people.

If part funded, how would you make up the difference:

One of The Period Place’s strengths is its diverse funding stream which includes grants, corporate sponsorships from businesses, fundraising events and individual giving from our supporters. If we are only partially successful in this application, we would scale back the number of products we purchase and apply to other grants to make up the difference. In addition to funding, The Period Place receives ad hoc donations of reusable period products which we distribute among our Impact Partners nationally. We are committed to supporting local groups to help those experiencing period poverty manage their periods with confidence and dignity.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Communities with a sense of belonging and identity, and pride in our diversity

The Founder of RCG, who is a local community member, identified a gap in the community landscape that was not catered for. RCG creates a place for connections between Chinese and also with non-Chinese and the wider community, helping the Chinese community feel a sense of belonging and included, locals pride in our diversity Puketāpapa is a incredibly diverse area and RCG helps Chinese feel valued - for instance, at many council and local board culture events, our members showed many community members how to create their own Chinese crafts alongside other ethnic groups, also being invited to share Chinese performance at rest homes and Communicare friendship centres

No 3 (Auckland City) Squadron Air Training Corps

Legal status:	Incorporated Society, Charitable Trust	Activity focus:	Community

Project: Photocopier Lease

Location:	Hillsborough
Summary:	The Squadron leases a photocopier as this is more cost effective than using printing companies. We use the photocopier extensively and is a vital tool which aids the officers to deliver a training programme of a high standard. We print anything from poster, to text books, shooting targets to record books. Without this, we would struggle to deliver our training programme as this provides the squadron the means to provide much needed materials. Please note - this grant application is a request for funding towards the fixed cost of the photocopier lease. Each month, the squadron is billed by the company for the usage, which is paid for by the squadron through fees and other fundraising sources such a BBQ's.
Expertise:	Each year we have between 120-140 youth that are enrolled with our SQN. The training we offer doesn't only provide them with an insight into military life, training into theory and practical aviation (including then flying an aircraft in their first year training), bush craft skills and military history. It also provides each individual life skills that goes on to serve them and the community in their chosen career. These skills include self confidence, personal bearing (how to conduct themselves in a professional manner, including ironing) and self respect. They also live the organizations values of Discipline, Integrity, Respect and Loyalty. This makes them well respected citizens of the community and in turn serves it.

The photocopier allows the squadron officers to print training materials which enhance the cadets learning experiences and aids in better outcomes for our training plan. This is more cost effective than paying for printing services.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Communities with a sense of belonging and identity, and pride in our diversity

Each year we have between 120-140 youth that are enrolled with our SQN. Location:	Hillsborough Baptist Church. 179 Hillsborough Road, including Church buildings/facilities and car park.
Summary:	Our project is to support a local fun day and pre-Christmas festival to encourage interaction between people in the local Hillsborough community. It will be a daytime-only activity and will be family focused. A variety of activities suitable for families and children will be provided without charge to participants. Food will be provided.
Expertise:	A very similar, successful pre-Christmas festival and fun day was held in 2019. (COVID disrupted plans to repeat this activity until now.)

People reached:	400
% of participants from Local Board	99%
Promotion:	Publicity will include a billboard; letterbox drop of flyers, and posters. An acknowledgement of Local Board support can be included.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

It can be argued that, as a suburb, Hillsborough lacks a community 'hub' or point of geographic focus. We plan for this festival to encourage interaction between people in the neighbourhood in fun, family-friendly activities pre-Christmas. The organisation will be heavily reliant on volunteers for setting up and to supervise activities such as a bouncy castle, candy floss machine, preparing and serving BBQ food and baking (distributed free) and face-painting. A small stage will be erected for performances and musical items, including items from Mainly Music children and leaders.

The wider community can readily access the Church parking area and buildings/facilities in which the activities will be hosted, from Hillsborough Road and Currie Avenue. There will be no admission charge.

Toilet facilities, including accessible toilets, are available on-site.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Inclusive, interconnected and supportive neighbourhoods

Our project is to support a pre-Christmas community fun-day and festival. In so doing we aim to support The Five Ways to Wellbeing - namely fostering Connecting between people and families in the surrounding community; Taking Notice and finding enjoyment in simple fun activities forming part of the festival; Be Active through participation in activities; Give, as the organization is based largely on voluntary contributions of time and work; Keep Learning through the provision of family-focused activities and experiences.

In terms of Puketapapa Local Board priorities this application is strong on promoting volunteerism and encouraging people to engage with their wider community.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

In New Zealand, a feature of the older population is the increasing ethnic and social diversity, with higher proportions of Māori, Pacific peoples and Asian people who will have different needs and expectations. Providing social and educational activities for seniors isn't just essential for reducing isolation, but ensuring they have a long and happy life. This is why Roskill Together has collaborated with groups like ADCOSS, Age Concern, Bhartiya Samaj and Grey Power, to provide fun and informative programmes for the older residents of Mt. Roskill. We have provided first aid courses, healthy cooking programmes, dance programmes, positive aging workshops and walking groups for seniors.

One of Roskill Together’s biggest achievement to date has been the establishment of three Seniors Hubs (Groups) supporting about 45 seniors. These groups are (1) Landscape Road Seniors’ Group (2) 580 Hillsborough Road Seniors’ Group, and (3) Rainford Street Seniors’ Group. The expected benefits/outcomes of these seniors’ groups are: * increased social interaction; * improved mental health conditions, *decreased social isolation; * improved health conditions through exercise; * increased knowledge and understanding of topics that affect seniors such as power of attorney and * enhanced self-determination in terms of developing a social and educational programme.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Communities with a sense of belonging and identity, and pride in our diversity

Our project aims to improve the engagement of local seniors in the community and enhance their sense of belonging. The project is responding to gaps in services for seniors in the area and go a long way in countering loneliness and isolation elderly people often feel.

Project: A Voice for Puketāpapa's Kids with Down Syndrome

Location:	Homes, clinics, and schools throughout the Puketāpapa Local Board area
Summary:	This project will enable Puketāpapa's kids with Down syndrome to access a 12-month programme of speech and language therapy to help develop the communication skills needed to be included in education, connect, and develop socially, and celebrate their identities. [Redacted] and [Redacted] are 100% of the children with Down syndrome in the Puketāpapa Local Board area currently in need of assistance. They will receive one-on-one support to help them reach age-appropriate communication development goals working with an NZSTA-registered speech-language therapist in the home, school, or at a specialist clinic, depending on which setting is most beneficial to the child. The project will help these kids develop communication tools essential for their continued progress through their respective stages of education.
Expertise:	UpsideDowns has been delivering programmes of speech therapy since 2003. We work only with NZSTA-registered speech and language therapists, ensuring services provided are of a professional, ethical, and culturally responsive standard, centred in evidence-based practice, with professional oversight, and delivered in accordance to all applicable legal frameworks. The communication journey is long, so we walk alongside our members from the day they join (often from birth) until they graduate high school or turn 21. We see huge development in the communication abilities of the kids we work with, which now total over 300 around the country.
Focus specific:	Not Specified
Dates:	02/07/2023 - 02/07/2024
People reached:	8 (2 children with Down syndrome, plus family members, therapists, and involved teachers – new members are welcome to join at any time during the project.)
% of participants from Local Board	99%
Promotion:	We will acknowledge the Puketāpapa Local Board's contribution to these children's speech and language therapy on our website, in our quarterly newsletter, and in our annual report. The children's families and therapists will also be made aware of where the funding has come from.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

Speech and language therapy is the single most important intervention for reducing barriers to inclusion in education, social connection, and community participation for these children. A truly inclusive community understands and values the vast contributions people living with disabilities bring to their schools, workplaces, and the neighbourhoods when properly supported.

The benefits of supporting these children to remain in mainstream education go far beyond the individual learner and their whānau: Research shows that typically developing children who share a classroom with a child with an intellectual disability such as Down syndrome have better literacy and numeracy outcomes and greater emotional intelligence than those who do not. If these kids don't have the communication tools necessary to remain in the classroom, everybody misses out.

Without speech and language therapy, chances of employment later in life are drastically reduced for those who cannot communicate: The unemployment rate for people with Down syndrome is estimated at around 80-95%. Speech and language therapy is a critical and cost-effective way to change this. Early intervention programmes such as ours have a demonstrated financial benefit to communities, with one study suggesting every $1 spent on early intervention can generate $5.37 for a community.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Communities with a sense of belonging and identity, and pride in our diversity

Children living with Down syndrome have the same need to be included and feel they belong as any other member of the community, but their communication challenges make this difficult. Without proper support, many children with Down syndrome will remain non-verbal throughout their lives, unable to connect socially, participate in mainstream education or community life, or express their unique identities.

Research clearly identifies regular speech and language therapy as the single most important service for helping overcome these disadvantages. By developing communication skills through this therapy, kids with Down syndrome learn to express their needs, communicate with peers, connect socially, be included in schooling, and celebrate lives of independence and pride.

However, this life-changing therapy is not publically funded and private services are costly, more so than most whānau can afford as the cost of living continues to rise and many are forced to deal with damages from recent weather events. Our project, A Voice for Puketāpapa's Kids with Down Syndrome, will deliver regular, individualised speech and language therapy to 100% of kids living with Down syndrome in the Local Board area in need of assistance.

By funding this project, the Puketāpapa Local Board will ensure none of these amazing kids are left behind, excluded from education, socially isolated, or unable to celebrate their diverse identities. Together, we can give the gift of speech to all of Puketāpapa's young people living with Down syndrome.

Accessible to people with disabilities

Yes - UpsideDowns works exclusively with children and young people with the life-long disability of Down syndrome. Down syndrome is the most common chromosomal condition in the world and results in an intellectual disability and physiological abnormalities, such as a larger-than-average tongue, a smaller-than-average mouth, and lower muscle tone. All of these factors combine to significantly impair the individual's ability to speak. Our project helps to develop communication skills which improve accessibility in all aspects of these kids' lives.

Healthy environment approach:

Promote smoke-free messages, Include waste minimisation (zero waste) messages, Encouraging active lifestyles including movement or fitness programmes

Working with children, we maintain a 100% smoke-free environment at all times. We endeavour to be a zero-waste organisation through paperless operation and striving to use sustainable materials in all our events and fundraisers. We provide healthy food and drink at our events, and work in partnership with regional providers of physical health promotion programmes for people with disabilities.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

UpsideDowns supports young people living with Down syndrome: families can apply for membership before their child is born, and are supported by UpsideDowns until their child graduates high school or turns 21. Children and young people of all genders and ethnicities are supported by UpsideDowns.

Financial information

Amount requested: $2000.00

Requesting grant for: Speech and language therapy for Puketāpapa's children living with Down syndrome for one year.

If part funded, how would you make up the difference:

UpsideDowns commits to assisting children from the time they come off our waitlist until they turn 21, or they graduate high school. If funding for this project is unsuccessful, we will draw from our cash reserves. High demand for our service has seen these cash reserves relied upon heavily; if reserves become too depleted we will have to reduce the number of sessions we can support or decrease our funding caps. This increases the cost burden of speech and language therapy for our member families, hindering each child's ability to participate in school and connect with the community.

Community benefits

Identified community outcomes:

Many of the young people we work with are disadvantaged and often feel lonely, alone, disengaged and desperate with a reduced sense of belonging to family, school or community. Our youth workers and counsellors work with these young people to resolve their issues and support them as they transition to adulthood. We are very active in schools in the area.

Adolescence can be a stressful time and having a responsible mentor/counsellor walking beside them can have a significant positive impact on a young person who is struggling to cope with the stresses and strains of daily life.

Now, over 3 years after the first lockdown, the stress and anxiety that young people felt as a result of COVID-19 remains for many as an underlying condition and requires great care as we work with our rangatahi going forward.

The counselling and programmes that we offer these vulnerable young people provide support, guidance, direction and motivation. These development opportunities encourage them to become positive contributors and leaders in their community – a real benefit to themselves, friends, whanau and the community at large.

Alignment with local board priorities:

- Strong local youth voice and leadership

Youthline has been supporting rangatahi and their families for over 50 years. Our kaupapa/purpose is to strengthen wellbeing through youth voice and youth choice such that young people are empowered within their communities.

We are well known as “the number one place for young people to reach out to for support”. 76% of young people are aware of Youthline and 17% of young people have contacted us for help (Colmar Brunton 2021).

We are a “with youth, for youth” organisation and the first point of contact for many young people accessing youth development and support services across Aotearoa New Zealand. We are a respected and trusted frontline service that has changed the lives of many people who have reached out in their time of need. The Youthline Helpline is at the heart of our mahi. Young people in need who contact us through our Helpline often feel lonely, alone, disengaged and desperate. They often have a reduced sense of belonging to family, school or community.

We aim to ensure that the young people we work with have clear pathways from school to work. And we aim to engender a sense of belonging to their family, school and the community in which they live. In supporting these young people Youthline is very much committed to promoting healthy, safe, sustainable and active lifestyles.

COVID-19 has had a profound affect on the youth of Aotearoa and its impact is ongoing. There has never been a more important time to create a sense of belonging, connection and community.

The pandemic increased the demand for our services to a significant degree and placed additional pressure on our already stretched resources and we are still stretched.

Now, over 3 years after the first lockdown, the stress and anxiety that young people felt as a result of COVID remains for many as an underlying condition and will require great care as we work with our rangatahi going forward. And while the restrictions have largely been lifted COVID is still in the community and our rangatahi remain vulnerable to the distress its presence causes.

In essence, for our young people there has been little relief from the stresses and strains of COVID since it arrived. Even now, the COVID shadow lingers – and will do so for some time to come. Our rangatahi will continue to need support under the COVID shadow. We simply have to be there for them as they build their lives and transition from adolescence to adulthood, from school to tertiary education, training and employment.

In research undertaken in 2021, 83% of young people said mental health issues, including suicide, are the biggest problem facing youth (Colmar Brunton 2021). This follows a 2020 Youthline online survey with 975 young people and their families where more than 72% of respondents shared that COVID-19 and lockdown have impacted their mental health with young people under 25 more likely to share this than older groups.

Youthline supports these young people, acknowledges their issues and is inclusive with a strengths-based, person-centred approach. We very much aim to build engagement and resiliency for young people and support them in transitioning to adulthood.

Youthline services equip youth with skills and insights on how to build self-esteem and improve mental-health, how to actively problem-solve, recover from setbacks and build resilience. Counsellors link them with local support services to assist their ongoing development. Through their improved emotional and self-management skills young people are less likely to fall into helplessness, depression, addictive behaviours, dangerous relationships and unemployment. Our experienced youth worker teams provide individual support, mentoring, development and leadership opportunities to vulnerable youth throughout the Auckland region. For many, connecting with Youthline provides a pathway to a range of personal development and life skills programmes offered by our team including personal development, job skills (e.g. barista training, CV writing and job applications) and learner licence training. All designed to better equip young people to be healthy and active and productive members of their communities. Research shows that when young people are engaged in community activities, linked with whanau, and given the opportunity to participate feel that they are part of something and encouraged to reach their potential, that risk taking behaviour is reduced. Youthline works inclusively with youth, from those young people who are most vulnerable to youth leaders who are championing change. Our clinical support workers counsel/mentor young people identified as needing one-on-one support to encourage and inspire them. They aim to understand the strengths and weaknesses of each young person, then identify goals and milestones and develop a plan for successful implementation and progression. By walking beside a young person and providing positive role models Youthline aims to see every young person become a positive contributor to society with a strong sense of belonging.

In terms of our services going forward we know that:

1. There will continue to be a high demand for support coloured by the shadow of COVID
2. We will need to maintain volunteer numbers for our Helpline service at as higher a level as possible to cope with the demand and increased complexity
3. The need for comprehensive training and triage support for our volunteers will be paramount.
4. Our youth worker teams will continue to have a large number of vulnerable young people to work with requiring significant levels of programme resources.
5. Our volunteer and face-to-face counsellors will have a high need for supervision that in particular acknowledges the unique stresses and strains engendered by the pandemic.

Demographics

Māori outcomes:

- Youthline provides support services to young people in need across the ethnic spectrum. Last year 16% of calls and texts to our Helpline presented as Māori, slightly ahead of the 14% of young people aged 15-24 residing in the Auckland area who identify as Māori. 19.7% of our mentoring and face-to-face counselling clients are Māori and 12% of our staff identify as Māori.

All of our staff and volunteers are trained on the Treaty of Waitangi. Māori models of health such as Te Whare Tapa Wha inform our work with targets groups of rangatahi Māori. Youthline has a Māori working group (Nga Whetu Poutama) to guide Youthline to increase the organisation's cultural capacity and inform the work that we do.

Accessible to people with disabilities

Yes - All our services and facilities are accessible to people with disabilities

Healthy environment approach:

Promote smoke-free messages
Youthline Auckland supports the Auckland Council's Smokefree Policy and its commitment to working proactively with others towards making Auckland smokefree by 2025. We have a smoke free policy in place and can offer support, advice and referrals to young people who wish to give up smoking. We ensure that the young people we work with are aware of our support for making Auckland smokefree and how we can help them if necessary.

Does your project support any genders, ages or ethnicities specifically?

As a "with youth, for youth, by youth" organisation Youthline is committed to supporting all rangatahi with a focus on ages 12-24 years. We have a strong commitment to diversity recognising that our minority communities, including Maori, Pasifika and Rainbow youth, disproportionately experience mental health issues and are less likely to seek help.

A strategic priority is to hold an equity focus on Maori, Pasifika, Rainbow, Asian, Migrant and Refugee youth and young people with disabilities.

We are advocates for youth focus, youth voice and youth choice and providing leadership to ensure young people are prioritised and invested in. Recognising and addressing inequities and upholding safety is very important to us.

With the COVID shadow still lingering in the community the need to support our rangatahi is greater than it has ever been.

If part funded, how would you make up the difference:

We would not amend our plan as such. Rather we would continue being extremely proactive in applying for funding from a wide range of funders. We need to find the funding somewhere.

With COVID still impacting the community many of our funders continue to have a reduced capacity to provide funding. At a time when young people need our service more than ever we are hugely dependent on those organisations who can provide funding.

Introduction

This plan has been prepared in collaboration between Auckland Emergency Management (AEM) and Local Board to provide Local Board Elected Members with an effective, planned approach to responding to a civil defence emergency response and links to AEM.

The scope of this plan is on emergency response and not the supporting areas of risk reduction, readiness, resilience, or recovery activities.

When an emergency occurs, this plan will be used as an important reference tool for the Local Board to guide their Elected Members' response to the emergency event.

Note: The emergency event may not be a declared state of emergency, however, may still involve a managed response.

To effectively assist your communities during an event, we recommend all Elected Members take actions to ensure that you and your household is prepared for and able to get through a civil defence emergency. Every household should prepare and rehearse a household emergency plan and assemble and maintain a household 'emergency survival and getaway kit'. Information on the contents of such a kit can be found on the AEM website - www.aucklandcivildefence.org.nz/get-ready/. Without taking these actions, you will be less able to assume the roles and responsibilities required in this plan.

Plan Purpose

This plan is for use by the Local Board Elected Members for the purpose of responding to Civil Defence Emergencies (declared or undeclared). It details the role and responsibilities of Local Board Elected Members so they can effectively support Auckland Emergency Management, and the communities impacted by an emergency, in their local board role.

Local Board Elected Members

Elected Members are critical partners in emergency management before, during and after disasters strike. By taking an active and personal role in emergency management, elected officials can help ensure the safety of their communities.

Auckland Emergency Management is committed to working with Elected Members to ensure they have the knowledge and information needed to support emergency management efforts in Auckland.

Add responsibilities before, during and after from the finalised Elected Members Handbook

Auckland Emergency Management

Auckland Emergency Management is responsible for taking an integrated approach to emergency management, based on reduction, readiness, response and recovery.

Role of Local Board Elected Members

Before an emergency event

- Consider having your local Service Centre available to set up as your HQ.

During an emergency event

- Ability to quickly identify local key contacts for response – to give to ECC.
- Provide verified local communications, regularly updated, for the local public through Local Board email, social media platforms and any local radio station(s).
- Provide accurate Situation Reports to the ECC

After an emergency event

- Encourage and support the recovery team working within the community.
- Provide political leadership by ensuring appropriate scrutiny and provision of resources to the recovery team.
- Champion the issue of your community to the local authority and recovery team. Use your local knowledge to understand the culture, thoughts/ opinions and information that can contribute to local awareness and help identify problems and vulnerabilities.
- Reassure your communities and highlight successes, but also be realistic – the recovery process is complex and will take a long time.

Hazards in Local Board

A hazard is something that has the potential to adversely affect our people, property, economy, environment or other assets we value. When combined, these are referred to as elements at risk.

Auckland’s geographical location, partially on a narrow isthmus of land, within the Auckland Volcanic Field, and close to the collision point of two large tectonic plates, makes our region vulnerable to a wide range of natural hazards.

Hazard	Potential Impacts
Severe Weather and Storms
Catchment flooding
Tsunami
Biological e.g. pandemic
Lifeline Utility Failures
Volcano
Biosecurity e.g. animal epidemic, plant and animal pests

For detailed and up-to-date information about different hazards in Local Board area, refer to the Auckland Hazards Viewer - <https://aucklandcouncil.maps.arcgis.com/apps/MapSeries/index.html?appid=81aa3de13b114be9b529018ee3c649c8>.

(Inclusion on maps)

The Hazard Viewer shows a range of information in interactive maps including areas exposed to a tsunami zone, flooding, coastal inundation, severe wind, active earthquake faults, volcanic vents and Auckland’s Volcanic Field.

(Hazard guidance for specific impacts)

Emergency Alerts and Warning Systems

Public emergency alerts

Add section about public emergency alerts – align with finalised Elected Members Handbook.

Local Board Elected Member alerts

Add a sentence about the Duty Officer processes before a response (whisper warnings and alerts and emails), and then how this flows through to how Local Board members will be alerted/kept aware of heightened risk.

Social Media (website, Facebook twitter, Red Cross app)?

Radio channels?

Emergency Coordination Centres (ECC) and activation

Auckland's Emergency Coordination Centres

Bledisloe Emergency Coordination Centre (ECC)

Bledisloe Emergency Coordination Centre (ECC) - Primary

The primary Auckland Emergency Coordination Centre is in Bledisloe House. This is the base that Auckland Emergency Management use for coordinating any emergency events.

Elcoat Emergency Coordination Centre (ECC)

Elcoat Emergency Coordination Centre (ECC) - Secondary/Alternate

If the primary ECC in Bledisloe House was unavailable, a fully equipped secondary/alternate ECC is located in Elcoat Avenue, Henderson

Add information about ECC activation levels.

Add information on process of declaration and implication for Local Board Elected Members

Communication and sharing of intelligence between Local Board Elected Members and the Emergency Coordination Centre

Add finalised information from the Elected Members Handbook

Civil Defence Centres, Shelters and Community Emergency Hubs

Civil Defence Centres

These are places run by Auckland Emergency Management and staffed by Auckland Council Staff, welfare not for profit organisations and central government agencies.

They are equipped to provide affected people with a safe place to eat, sleep and access essential support services.

Civil Defence Centres are activated by Auckland Emergency Management based on community need and conversations with Local Board Elected Members and other stakeholders. These are of a scale which require a coordinated approach with the scale of resources AEM has to hand.

Shelters

These are places run by Auckland Emergency Management and staffed by Auckland Council Staff and welfare not for profit organisations.

They provide a place to be safe while the worst of the weather passes. Blankets and hot drinks will be available but shelters are not equipped for longer stays.

Shelters are activated by Auckland Emergency Management.

Community Emergency Hubs

Community Emergency Hubs are place run by communities. They are not managed or run by Auckland Emergency Management or Auckland Council staff.

They offer a place where the community can meet, support and help each other and make decisions together about how to best ensure the safety and comfort of everyone in their community during an emergency. Check the group's website or Facebook page, if they have one, to see if the community group has opened their Community Emergency Hub.

Laws still apply during an emergency and community members have no legal powers to requisition resources, however, people are often generous and willing to help and provide resources if they're asked.

A Community Emergency Hub can also provide local, on the ground information back to AEM's Emergency Coordination Centre. This can include requests for ad hoc resources to meet specific needs, thereby avoiding the establishment of a Civil Defence Centre.

Community Emergency Hubs are activated by the community as and when they think there is a need which they can resource – often in the initial 24 to 36 hours.

Appendix

Add a list of the Civil Defence Centres and Shelters that have been identified in this Local Board rohe.

Add a list of community groups in this Local Board Rohe area who AEM is aware of who are involved in disaster preparedness and response, including if they have pre-established Community Emergency Hubs.
