You will have the following 2 options:

View Data & Enter Readings

2.1.1 View Data – Click on the “View Data” link next to the enter readings link on the extreme right of the consent summary page. On selecting this option a new screen will open with a graph showing your water use for this year. Click on the “Custom Range” tab to customise the graph to view the water use for the period of interest. You can also download and print text data of previous water use records that you have provided to us by clicking on the links at the top left of the screen.

This option makes auditing your water use quick and easy, helping you to manage your water use efficiently.

2.1.2 Enter Readings – Click on the ‘Enter Readings’ link at the extreme right of the consent summary page. You will open another screen displaying the current period for which readings are required. This page will also display details of the consent: Consent Holder, Allocation Limit, e.t.c.

2.2 Entering Data

Click on the “Enter Readings” link to access the online meter readings sheet. The current quarter for which readings are due will be displayed. Links to previous quarters where data are missing are also provided.

The online meter reading form has the following colour codes:

- A blue box indicates that a reading is required
- Previously entered readings are shown with a green background. These can be changed to correct mistakes
- Submitted data cannot be altered and is shown with a yellow background.

New Meter

When you install a new meter or if the meter has rewound to zero, you need to type ‘m’ before the reading. For example, if you replace your meter and the first reading taken is 1, you should enter ‘m1’ in the appropriate date box. If you do not do this, the reading (and all those following it) will be rejected.

Indicating No Use

You have to place a dash ‘-’ in the appropriate box to indicate nil-water use for that particular day/week.

2.2.1 Submitting Data

Data for a quarter can only be submitted at the end of that period. Also it can only be submitted when the required number of readings for that period have been entered. i.e. 12 or 90 readings depending on the type of permit. You have the options of indicating No Use (type a dash “-“)

2.2.2 Selecting a Different Monitoring Period or Entering Data For Outstanding Quarters

To enter data for a previous period, click on the appropriate ‘Active Period’ at the top right of the data entry page. Monitoring periods with incomplete readings which are overdue will be indicated in red. Note, you cannot change submitted data.

3 Blank Meter Readings Sheet

You can download and print a blank meter readings sheet by clicking on the link at the bottom of the consent summary page. You can use this to manually record readings and enter them online later.

4 Environmental Data Online
