Appendix F: What the public value about Rodney parks

We publicly notified the intention to prepare a Rodney open space management plan from 3 July 2019 until 30 August 2019. This followed the process set out in the Reserves Act 1977.

We received a total of 219 comments, which included:

- 97 submissions through Have Your Say and an online map tool
- 14 emails
- 19 hard copy submissions or postcards.

Of the 219 comments:

- 17 were made on behalf of organisations or community groups
- 113 were from unique individuals.

Park stakeholders were invited to meet with council staff in July 2019 to discuss the plan. Drop-in sessions were held at Warkworth Service Centre and Wellsford Library. A further 13 groups met with council. Of these, a small number also made a formal submission.

Rodney has over 350 local parks. Of these, 105 parks were specifically mentioned by submitters. The eight parks mentioned the most included:

- Coatesville Recreation Reserve
- Warkworth Showgrounds
- Matheson Bay Reserve
- Parry Kauri Park
- Leigh Harbour Cove Walkway
- Cumberland Street Reserve
- Buckleton Beach Reserve
- Lucy Moore Memorial Park.

When asked “What do you like to do when visiting your local park?”, the community answered that local parks are valued spaces to be active/play sport, play, relax and enjoy nature, socialise and attend events and for their ability to provide access to water-based recreation.

When asked “What do you wish you could do at your local park?”, the community answered that key wishes included improved park facilities and the ability to navigate within and between parks.
